CENTRAL ASIA (Double underline – Got local churches)

Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan

There are local churches in Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan. In the capital of Kyrgyzstan, Bishkek, owned a meeting hall for a meeting, blending and perfecting training. There are saints in four cities of Uzbekistan, currently, they have one zoom meeting. There is a local church in Kazakhstan. Pray for the church life to be strengthened in these three countries.

Kazakhstan

Anger boiled over when the government lifted price caps for liquefied petroleum gas – deep-seated roots, including anger at social and economic disparities, exacerbated by a raging pandemic, as well the lack of real democracy.

This country has been regarded until now as a pillar of political and economic stability in an unstable region. The countries of the former Soviet Union are also watching the protests closely, and the events in Kazakhstan could help energize opposition forces elsewhere.

Pray for:

- 1) More people in Kazakhstan to be open and accept the Lord Jesus.
- 2) More oneness in building the saints and golden lampstands in different cities.

4. The smooth release and delivery of the books being held at customs.
5. The ongoing advertising and distribution of the Recovery Version and ministry books that may reach the seeking ones and by being drawn to the fellowship in the Body of Christ:
 - Many recipients could participate in "Bible study" Zoom meetings of the church in Netanya.
 - They would be nourished and enlightened and organically connected with the saints for further shepherding.
6. The Ukrainian "J" coming to be touched that they turn to the Lord Jesus, who will gain many more "I's" for His economy in this age.
