Report and Prayer Burdens 19

February 2, 2026

EUROPE

France (Paris)

February 2

The seminar on Saturday was full of local saints and eleven new ones! The topic was on “The Bible and its Functions”. Many testified that it was very informative, helpful, and dense. Someone also said, “Now I know where God lives!” Many were enlightened and encouraged by this time to start reading the Bible.

Germany (Berlin)

January 30

Our day began with a morning coordination with the full-time team. One of the brothers joined a morning appointment with a student and later had a lunch appointment with another student. Both times were rich in fellowship and mutual building. In the afternoon, the sisters split into two groups for appointments. Both groups visited families, sharing testimonies and fellowshipping concerning the Lord’s work in Berlin. In all our appointments we were simply reminded that we are here to sow seeds wherever we go and to all those we meet, trusting the Lord for the growth.

In the evening, we attended a gospel meeting on the topic “Back in the Father’s House,” during which many in that meeting prayed to receive the Lord. At the same time, a pair of sisters joined a small group meeting with many children, where the hosting family shared their testimony and the history of the church in Berlin.

January 31

In the morning and early afternoon, the brothers spent time with their host family, while the sisters spent time with the ones in the sisters’ house. Later, we gathered with the young people in Berlin at the meeting hall for a combined young people’s time, where they would also stay overnight. We joined them for activities and dinner. After dinner, we participated in a fireside chat with young people from across Europe, during which leading brothers answered questions submitted by young people. The questions that evening focused on the significance of the Lord’s table and the importance of having companions.

February 1

In the morning, we attended the Lord's table meeting with the church in Berlin, followed by the young people's meeting. We shared our testimonies and experiences from our time as young people. Many were curious about the training and asked thoughtful questions. One of the young people even asked us to pray for the young people in Berlin to be able to attend the full-time training. Afterward, we enjoyed a love feast and had sweet blending with the saints.

In the evening, we split into two groups for dinner with families. At the sisters' dinner, we heard the saints' testimonies and fellowshiped about the history of the church in Berlin and the Lord's move in Europe. At the brothers' dinner, they enjoyed a warm fellowship with a family.

Prayer Burdens:

1. That the young people of Berlin would be able to go to the full-time training.
2. That the ones that prayed to receive the Lord would be further connected with the local saints and even join a small group/find community in the church.
3. That the Lord would continue to cause the growth in all the seeds sown on this gospel trip.

Ireland

January 31

The trainees went to Belfast, Northern Ireland with some local saints; we were 16 in total. After some exploring of the city, we gathered for dinner and enjoyment with the saints there.

February 1

As there is no lampstand in Belfast yet, the trainees began the day by blending with hospitality. In the afternoon, the 15 saints and six young people in Belfast gathered to hear the trainees' testimonies and to have a time of overflowing. In the evening after driving back to Dublin, we joined a Zoom call with some saints that had migrated to Dublin and then moved back to the US.

February 2

On our last day in Ireland, we went back to Trinity College to hand out tracts and see some college students one last time. For dinner we joined local saints and went over highlights and enjoyments from our trip.

Prayer Burdens:

1. That the Lord would establish a lampstand in Belfast in 2026.
2. That there would be a reaping of the seeds sown, especially with Irish students.
3. For the increase in Christ of all the saints in Ireland, including the new ones, for the preparation for the Bride and the Lord's return.

Italy (Milan)

January 31

We began the day with an orientation with all the Italy sub-teams in the Milan meeting hall. It was wonderful to see all the saints both local and from around the world gathered together for the Lord's move!

In the afternoon, we went to two different shopping malls to begin our gospel preaching. Since it was a Saturday, many local saints joined us. The tract we mainly passed out was called “Hai Mangiato Bene?” (“Have you eaten well?”) presenting the Lord as food for the hunger in our being. There were a good number of Italians open to having a conversation with us. One of them couldn't speak English well but still endeavored to talk to us through Google translate. We gave him a Basic Elements of the Christian Life and he asked for another one for his cousin. We also met a catholic man who had been reading the Bible for many years. He listened very intently to our sharing about the Lord Jesus as the bread of life for us to eat, and he responded saying, “That is very interesting and got me thinking.” We ended up giving him our number so he could reach out to us when he is ready. In the evening, we had dinner and a blending time between the local and visiting saints.

In the morning, we had the Lord's table meeting (in Italian, Chinese, and English) at the meeting hall in Milan. At a certain point, we sang hymn #1107 and had a deep sense that “there is one Body in this universe”, and we are here expressing it in Milan. May the Lord continue to gain many more localities in Europe for the expression of His One Body. After the meeting and the love feast, a gospel contact was baptized in a local saint's home.

Afterwards, we headed to Lecco, where the Olympics torch relay was happening, to pass out tracts. There were a number of open ones willing to hear about the Lord and followed us to pray. Towards the end, a local student approached the table with a curious question about the sinful nature of man. From this, we led her to understand the human fallen condition and helped her to receive the Lord by calling on Him. We then were able to have more fellowship with her in a nearby restaurant, while waiting for the torch relay.

February 2

Today we went on two campuses: Politecnico di Milano-Bovisa, a top engineering school in Italy, and Università degli Studi di Milano-Bicocca to preach the gospel. There, we set up tables with tracts and began to sing, enjoying the Lord together. As we all sang, we were able to release our spirit, bringing in a warm and welcoming atmosphere which attracted a number of students to the table. Some of us went into the school buildings to reach them in a more personal way. One student was willing to have lunch with us on the spot. Although her English was limited, she was willing to hear us speak about the Bible. We later exchanged contact information and hope to read Basic Elements of the Christian Life with her later this week. We also met two Italian students who were really open and they offered to show us around the city later this week. We pray this would happen so that through this opportunity something of the Lord can be revealed to them.

Prayer burdens:

1. That the Lord would release second appointments with the open ones.
2. That the Lord will bring us the seeking ones among the students at university campuses for the rest of this week.
3. That the “warm doors” (i.e. saints’ friends, colleagues, etc.) will be open for contact and meeting the saints.
4. That the Lord would shepherd the local saints through our contact with them throughout the week.

NORTH AMERICA

Midwest

Ann Arbor, MI / Lafayette, IL

January 27-28

Local saints came with us as we spent time on the gospel at Purdue University with a focus on more intimate conversations to find ones that could be added for the strengthening of the locality. All trainees joined the prayer meeting at a saints’ home.

We went on appointments with new contacts and college students. Later Wednesday night, we attended a Purdue Bible study with college students and new contacts.

January 29-30

We had coordination with the saints, then went tabling in the entrance of a dining court. Some saints went on appointments with new contacts, where one contact received a New Testament Recovery version and a morning nourishment book. After our time on campus, we went to visit saints’ homes for dinner.

The next day, we continued to go out and pass out tracts and flyers for our gospel meeting later that night. Three new contacts came and exchanged contacts with the saints.

January 31

There was a blending time at a saints' home where we were able to spend more time with the children, young people, and families. Then we split up to spend time at two different home meetings at the saints' home.

February 1

The trainees traveled for some blending with the saints in Lafayette to Indianapolis to attend the table meeting and prophesying meeting with the saints. The saints hosted a love feast after and we were able to get to know more of the saints in Indianapolis.

Prayer burdens:

1. For the strengthening and building up of the students in Lafayette.
2. For a team to be established to care for all the open hearts of the students at Purdue, and shepherding the current students.
3. For the Lord's bountiful supply to the families in Lafayette for their labor and care of the students.

Northeast

Connecticut

January 30

Taking turns at two different locations, we tabled both for the club and for Bible distribution. One new one we met at the Bible distribution prayed to receive the Lord with one of the brothers. After joining a student for lunch at the dining hall, a group went to the local creamery where they met up with two students and a brother who is a professor at the University of Connecticut (UConn). We shared about the Lord with these two students and both received a New Testament Bible. Meanwhile one of the trainee sisters joined on an appointment with two regular students and one of the full-timers. Later that night we split into two groups. One group joined a church small group meeting with some of the regular meeting students. Another group joined at another family's home. Two of the students came for the first time.

January 31

We spent the day exploring New England and were joined by saints from Woodbridge, Newington, and Storrs. It was a sweet day of blending and enjoying our last day with the saints. In the evening, we joined a small group meeting where many of us shared our testimonies and gave reports of our time on the gospel the past couple of weeks.

February 1

The weather held off and we were able to gather together for the Lord's table. Following the meeting, we began our departures back to our home localities.

Prayer burdens

1. That the new contacts at Central Connecticut State University and UConn would have a healthy entrance into the club and fellowship with the saints.
2. To bind the enemy and his deceiving tactics on the campuses, especially at Central Connecticut State University.
3. For the going on of the saints and bringing in of more families and serving ones.

Southeast

Fort Myers, FL / Gainesville, FL / Orlando, FL / Tampa, FL

January 28

We traveled to Tampa on January 28th. Once we arrived, we joined their Bible study. Four students joined and they all participated. At night, we joined the working saints' Bible study. We shared our testimonies and also had the opportunity to hear the testimony of the saints who migrated to Tampa.

January 29

We tabled at University of Southern Florida (USF). There is no full-time team on this campus, therefore the saints volunteer to table on campus every week. We were able to receive many contacts of students. Afterwards, we had a home meeting at a saint's house, also joined by some visiting saints.

January 30

At night, we had the college meeting. We read through 2 Corinthians chapter 11. Most of the students were open and shared. Even one student shared his experience on how he touched the ground of the church, became clear on why we did not "have a name, but were simple and pure toward God", standing on the proper ground of locality.
